

V-TOX MICROCAPS

OPTIMIZE YOUR BODY'S DAILY CLEANSING POWER

Our bodies are continually exposed to harmful toxins. From the pollutants in our environment and the artificial chemicals in the foods we eat to our personal beauty and grooming products and the stressors of everyday life—all contribute to a gradual, unhealthy buildup of toxins within the body. And, just like any complex machine that requires regular maintenance, the body's five elimination organs (colon, kidneys, liver, lungs, and skin) naturally cleanse themselves for optimal functionality. However, our daily diets don't provide enough of the right nutrition to help these organs better perform their jobs.

Enter V-Tox, a food-and-plant-based blend of Fulvic Acid and cleansing herbs that, combined with Vasayo's Advanced Liposomal Delivery Technology, provide vital nutrients to the elimination organs for a total body detoxifying experience. Featuring the world's first liposomal milk thistle extract clinically proven to be up to ten times more bioavailable than over-the-counter brands, this supplement may be a great companion to any weight-loss program thanks to its ability to release fat-soluble toxins from the body. Gluten-free, non-GMO, and formulated to be used daily, V-Tox also removes heavy metals from the body and protects you on a daily basis from environmental pollutants.
